

Press Release For Immediate Release

Roger Sinha wins the 2017 Arts & Culture Lys

Montreal, May 30th 2017

During the 5th Diversity Gala (Gala de la diversité) on Thursday May 25th, 2017, Roger Sinha had the honor of receiving the Arts and Culture Lys trophy for his latest work MoW!/Montréal(olly)wood!. The jury from Grands prix Mosaïque recognized Sinha Danse's contribution to promote inclusion and outreach of diversity in all its forms.

This ambitious show had a great success last year and you can see it on July 8 at 7 pm at Place de la Gare-Jean-Talon (Parc-Extension) and on July 12 at 8 pm at Parc Lafontaine. The 375th of Montreal and 150th of Canada will be celebrated in all their diversity with this intercultural and intergenerational dance show combining Bollywood to contemporary dance uniting over a hundred Montreal amateur and professional dancers.

The Mosaic Grand Prizes awarded a total of 8 Diversity Lys trophies in the following categories: media, business, politics, social and community involvement, the grand prize tribute (personality) and the grand prize builder (media, business, organization). This gala presented by the Banque Nationale in collaboration with Médiamosaïque, the only diversity press agency Canada, is an unmissable event of diversity where networking, awards, shows and a gourmet meal are on the menu.

About Médiamosaïque

Since 2006, this Diversity Press Agency has published online and organized the "Diversity Summit", a series of consultations with different levels of government and thousands of people between 2011 and 2013 to find ways to include Diversity issues and voices in the media. Several initiatives such as the "Diversity TOP 20", "Diversity Month", the "MosaïCocktails" and the "MosaïZOOM", have emerged from this study, with the aim of enabling Canadians to better connect with diversity and vice versa.

About Sinha Danse

Sinha Danse, a flagship company founded in 1991 by Roger Sinha, and acclaimed by thousands of spectators in Canada and on three continents, demonstrates its deep attachment to the art of dance with creations of audacity, diversity, and energy. Roger Sinha recently won the 2016 Dance Diversity Award (Grand Prix de la danse de Montréal) and was named Canadian Ambassador for International Dance Day 2017 (Canadian Dance Assembly).

-30-

Source / contact :

Sandra Raymond, communications coordinator at Sinha Danse communications@sinhadanse.com 514-524-7997 www.sinhadanse.com